2 TERM OF LICENCE (NON-PRACTICE USERS)

Section 2 applies to users identified as Non-Practice users only.

2.1 The Software is built to support one or more Application Modules that includes, but is not limited to, TaxCalc Tax Return Production (Individual, Partnership, Limited Company and Trust) and TaxCalc VAT Filer. Your access to same is dependent upon You having purchased an appropriate Product from ASPL. Such Products will provide You with access to at least one series of tax return, each of which will provide You with a limited number of instances of said tax return and all of which being for one particular tax year only.

2.4 Examples:

2.11 For Your convenience, add-on modules may be made available to pre-order before they are released and will become active within the Software in due course by means of an update.

5 ADDITIONAL USER LICENCES (PRACTICE USERS)

Section 5 applies to users identified as Practice users only.

5.1 Application Modules may be designed to limit access to functionality to a given number of concurrent or non-concurrent users or the number of computers upon which the Software may be installed. You may increase the number of concurrent or non-concurrent users that can connect to an Application Module or the number of computers upon which the Software can be installed by purchasing Additional User Licences.

5.2 Additional User Licences are granted on the same terms as this EULA save for the termination date of the licence, which shall be set to co-terminate with the expiration of the Application Module to which it relates.

6 PROVISION OF COMPUTER NETWORK (PRACTICE USERS)

Section 6 applies to users identified as Practice users only.

6.1 You may operate the Software in either a standalone or network environment. Application Modules may restrict the number of concurrent users that will connect to a central database and/or the number of computers that the Software may be installed upon. 6.2 To allow multiple connections to a central database, You are required to provide and maintain a computer network that conforms to the specifications as stated in the Software's documentation or as advertised on ASPL's website.

6.3 ASPL will only provide support in respect of Your use of the Software. For the avoidance of doubt, this support does not extend to technical support or assistance with the troubleshooting of Your deployment of the Software on Your computer network. 7.2 Provided that You are a subject of the EU or UK, consumers are granted a general right to be able to resell a Software licence to a third party provided that certain conditions are met. The nature of the Software is such that these conditions cannot be met, namely that the Software provides You with the ability to complete a set number of tax returns, which are consumed through Your use of the Software. A licence being resold under EU law must be resold in a full and unconsumed state. The Software does not and cannot provide a facility for You to be able to split and therefore resell any unused tax returns. You therefore have no right to resell the Software to a third party.

7.3 If You are a Practice User and have purchased a licence for a Product that provides an unrestricted number of sets of accounts or tax returns or other unrestricted output, You may resell Your unexpired portion of Your annual licence to a third party provided that ASPL is able to delete it from Your computer systems. If You request a transfer of Your licence to a third party, You accept that:

7.3.4 the third party to whom the transfer is made will only be able to enjoy the Software up to the date of the original licence's expiry date; and

7.3.5 the terms of this EULA shall be accepted by and govern the usage of the Software by the third party; and

7.3.6 You will be required to cover the cost of each of the activities in Sections 7.3.1 to 7.3.3 inclusive. ASPL will charge a fee of £500 plus VAT per Product per day to You with such amount being payable prior to any action being taken by ASPL. Additional charges may apply, which may include, but are not limited to, preparation time and travel, subsistence and accommodation costs incurred by ASPL's members of staff.

7.4 The usage of our Cloud Connect Service by transfer of the licence to a third party under Section 7 is restricted.

7.5 Practice Users will not be permitted to transfer (by sale or otherwise) any Products which have a restricted number of sets of accounts or tax returns.

7.6 In the event that You are not a subject of the EU or the UK, You have no right whatsoever to transfer, sell or dispose of Your licence to a third party.

7.7 ASPL does not permit third party software to insert, delete, interrogate or in any way interact with data in the Software's database with the exceptions of those mentioned in Section 15.

7.7.1 If You give permission to a third party to interact with the Software's database, for example external practice management software, You do so entirely at your own risk. In accordance with Section 12, ASPL will not be held liable for data or database corruption, for example if the Software is updated and the third party software is not updated (and vice versa).

7.7.2 You cannot give permission to a third party to interact with a Cloud Connect database.
